The mission of the Mossavar-Rahmani Center for Business & Government is to advance the state of knowledge and policy analysis concerning some of society’s most challenging problems at the interface of the public and private sectors. The scope of its work ranges from the local to the global. Drawing on the unparalleled intellectual resources of the Kennedy School and Harvard University, and bringing together thought leaders from both business and government, the Center conducts research, facilitates dialogue, and seeks answers that are at once intellectually rigorous and policy relevant.

PROGRAMS

ENERGY & ENVIRONMENT

HARVARD ELECTRICITY POLICY GROUP ~ William Hogan, Director. Provides a forum for the analysis and discussion of important policy issues regarding the U.S. electricity industry. Addresses key problems related to the transition to a more competitive electricity market, provides a forum for informed and open debate, and supplies a vehicle for contributing to the wider public policy agenda affecting the electric sector.

CONSORTIUM FOR ENERGY POLICY RESEARCH AT HARVARD ~ William Hogan, Director. Dedicated to advancing Harvard’s energy policy research and fostering collaboration across the University in cooperation with Harvard’s Future of Energy initiative.

HARVARD ENVIRONMENTAL ECONOMICS PROGRAM ~ Robert Stavins, Director. Brings together faculty and graduate students from across Harvard University to engage in research, teaching, and outreach efforts in environmental and natural resource economics and related public policy.

HARVARD PROJECT ON INTERNATIONAL CLIMATE AGREEMENTS ~ Robert Stavins, Director. A major global initiative to help identify the key design elements of a scientifically sound, economically rational, and politically pragmatic post-2012 international policy architecture for global climate change.

SUSTAINABILITY SCIENCE PROGRAM ~ William Clark, Michael Kremer, and Nancy Dickson, Co-Directors. Harnesses the University’s strengths to promote the design of institutions, policies, and practices that support sustainable development. It addresses the challenge of sustainable development by advancing scientific understanding of human-environment systems; improving linkages between research and policy communities; and building capacity for linking knowledge with action to promote sustainability.

ROLE OF THE CORPORATION

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY INITIATIVE ~ John Ruggie, Faculty Chair. Seeks to study and enhance the public role of private enterprise, focusing on two core research streams: corporate governance and accountability, and business as a partner in international development.

PROGRAM ON BUSINESS & HUMAN RIGHTS ~ John Ruggie, Director. Identifies and clarifies standards of corporate responsibility and accountability in relation to human rights, to provide a more predictable global governance framework for businesses wherever they operate.

WEIL PROGRAM ON COLLABORATIVE GOVERNANCE ~ Jack Donahue, Director. Conducts research to improve understanding of how collaborations form, operate and perform, with a central goal of developing propositions that are empirically anchored, valid for important classes of collaboration and useful for improving practice.

FELLOWS

The Fellows Program brings distinguished academics and practitioners to contribute to research or explore a facet of the intersection of business and government. Over three hundred fellows have been a part of the Center since 1982. For more information, visit www.hks.harvard.edu/mrcbg.

STUDENT PROGRAMS

M-RCBG awards fellowships, travel grants and other support to students and student-run organizations. It sponsors career panels, helps identify internship opportunities, and works closely with the student run Business & Government Professional Interest Council to develop activities and events of special interest to students.
