Procedures Concerning Alleged Sexual or Gender-Based Harassment by HKS Faculty

The procedures for informal resolution and formal complaint with respect to alleged sexual or gender-based harassment by an HKS Faculty member are described below. Academic Dean for Teaching and Curriculum Suzanne Cooper is the HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty; she and other appropriate HKS officers will work with the central University Office for Sexual and Gender-Based Dispute Resolution (“ODR”) to implement these procedures.

Harvard students, faculty, staff, other Harvard appointees, or third parties who believe they are directly affected by the conduct of an HKS faculty member (collectively “Initiating Parties”) may: request information or advice, including whether certain conduct may violate the Policy; seek informal resolution; or file a formal complaint. These three options are described below.

Initiating Parties are encouraged to bring their concerns to the HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty, the Title IX Officer, or other staff in ODR, but may, if they choose, contact another School or University officer, who will refer the matter as appropriate.

As set forth below, interim measures designed to support and protect the Initiating Party or the University community may be considered or implemented at any time, including during a request for information or advice, informal resolution, or a formal complaint proceeding. Such interim measures might include, among others: restrictions on contact; course-schedule or work-schedule alteration; leaves of absence; or increased monitoring of certain areas of the campus. These interim measures are subject to review and revision throughout the processes described below.

I. Requests for Information or Advice

Initiating Parties seeking information or advice can expect to learn about resources available at the University and elsewhere that provide counseling and support. They also will be advised about the steps involved in pursuing an informal resolution or filing a formal complaint. In addition, the HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty or the University Title IX Officer or other staff in ODR may discuss with Initiating Parties whether any interim measures are appropriate at this stage.

II. Requests for Informal Resolution

Initiating Parties may make a request, either orally or in writing, for informal resolution to the HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty or the University Title IX Officer. The request should identify the alleged harasser (if known) and describe the allegations with specificity. The HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty or the University Title IX Officer will assess the severity of the alleged harassment and the potential risk of a hostile environment for others in the community to determine whether informal resolution may be appropriate.

Upon determining that informal resolution is appropriate, and in instances when the Initiating Party makes the request to the ODR, the University Title IX Officer will assign the informal resolution to an Investigator. The HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty or the Investigator will consult further with the person initiating the request, inform the person who is the subject of the allegations, and gather additional relevant information as necessary from the parties and others, as indicated. The HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty or the University Title IX Officer also may put in place any appropriate interim measures to protect the educational and work environment. The HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty or the Investigator will attempt to aid the parties in finding a mutually acceptable resolution.

When the allegations, if true, might constitute criminal conduct, the party against whom they are brought is hereby advised to seek legal counsel before making any written or oral statements. Those facing allegations may wish to obtain legal advice about how this process could affect any criminal case in which they are or may become involved.

A matter will be deemed satisfactorily resolved when both parties expressly agree to an outcome that is also acceptable to the HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty. At any point prior to such an express agreement, the Initiating Party may withdraw the request for informal resolution and initiate a formal complaint under these Procedures.

Ordinarily, the informal resolution process will be concluded within two to three weeks of the date of the request.

III. Procedures for Formal Complaints

A. Initiating a Complaint

An Initiating Party may file a formal complaint alleging a violation of the Policy. A complaint of sexual or gender-based harassment should be filed directly with the ODR, regardless of the identity of the Respondent. ODR will inform the HKS Title IX Coordinator for the Respondent and the School or unit Title IX Coordinator for the Complainant that a complaint has been received, and, if indicated, the HKS Title IX Coordinator(s) will put in place any appropriate interim measures.

A formal complaint must be in writing and signed and dated by a Complainant or a third party filing on behalf of a potential Complainant (Reporter). It should state the name of the alleged harasser (if known) and describe with reasonable specificity the incident(s) of alleged harassment, including the date and place of such incident(s). The complaint must be in the Complainant or Reporter’s own words, and may not be authored by others, including family members, advisors, or attorneys. Attached to the complaint should be a list of any sources of information (for example, witnesses, correspondence, records, and the like) that the Complainant or Reporter believes may be relevant to the investigation. However, a complaint should not be delayed if such sources of information are unknown or unavailable.

ODR will not investigate a new complaint if either ODR or HKS has already adjudicated a formal complaint based on the same circumstances or if the parties and the HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty or the Title IX Officer already have agreed to an informal resolution based on the same circumstances. Whether or not a complaint is filed with ODR, any person may file a complaint of discrimination with Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination, the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the U.S. Department of Education Office of Civil Rights, or any other state or federal agency having jurisdiction.

B. Timeframe for Filing a Complaint

The University does not limit the timeframe for filing a complaint. The University encourages complaints to be filed as soon as reasonably possible following an alleged Policy violation because the University’s ability to gather adequate information may be limited where a significant length of time has elapsed between an incident and the filing of a complaint. Further, with respect to those cases that will be reviewed by disciplinary bodies at the conclusion of the investigation, the University’s ability to complete its processes may be limited with respect to Respondents who are no longer employed by the University.

C. Initial Review

Once a complaint is received by the ODR, the University Title IX Officer will assign the case to an Investigator for an initial review. Investigators will have appropriate training, so that they have the specialized skill and understanding to conduct prompt and effective sexual and gender-based harassment investigations.

The Investigator will contact the Complainant or Reporter in an attempt to gather a more complete understanding of the allegations, as well as any related conduct that may implicate the Policy. When a complaint is brought by a Reporter, the Investigative Team will endeavor to meet with the person identified as the potential Complainant both to gather information and to discuss his or her interest in participating in an investigation.
Based on the information gathered, the Investigator will determine whether the information, if true, would constitute a violation of the Policy such that an investigation is warranted or whether the information warrants an administrative closure. The Investigative Team will convey this determination to: the Complainant (and the Reporter, if there is one); the Title IX Officer; and the HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty. The Investigator will work with the HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty to implement any appropriate interim measures to be put in place by the School pending the completion of the case (or to revise as necessary any measures already in place).

Ordinarily, the initial review will be concluded within one week of the date the complaint was received.

D. Investigation

Following the decision to begin an investigation, the Investigative Team will notify the Respondent in writing of the allegations and will provide a copy of the Policy and these procedures. The Respondent will have one week in which to submit a written statement in response to the allegations. This statement must be in the Respondent’s own words; Respondents may not submit statements authored by others, including family members, advisors, or attorneys. Attached to the statement should be a list of all sources of information (for example, witnesses, correspondence, records, and the like) that the Respondent believes may be relevant to the investigation.

If the decision is made to begin an investigation in a case where a Reporter filed the complaint, and the Complainant is unwilling to participate but the School has assessed the severity of the harassment and the potential risk of a hostile environment for others in the community and has determined to proceed, then, for the purposes of these Procedures, the HKS Title IX Coordinator (or a designee) will be considered the Complainant.

The Investigator will request individual interviews with the Complainant and the Respondent, and, as appropriate, with other witnesses, which may include those identified by the parties as well as relevant officers of the School or University or others. When identifying potential witnesses, the parties should understand that the purpose of interviews is to gather and assess information about the incident(s) at issue in the complaint, not to solicit general information about a party’s character.

When a complaint involves allegations that, if true, also might constitute criminal conduct, Respondents are hereby advised to seek legal counsel before making any written or oral statements. The investigation process is not a legal proceeding, but Respondents might wish to obtain legal advice about how this process could affect any criminal case in which they are or may become involved.

After the collection of additional information is complete but prior to the conclusion of the investigation, the Investigator will request individual follow-up interviews with the Complainant and the Respondent to give each the opportunity to respond to the additional information.

E. Personal Advisors

Both the Complainant and the Respondent may bring a personal advisor to any interviews with the Investigator.

Personal advisors may view a redacted version of the complaint or other documents provided to the parties, offer feedback on their advisee’s written statements, and provide general advice. During interviews, personal advisors may not speak for their advisees, although they may ask to suspend the interviews briefly if they feel their advisees would benefit from a short break.

F. Confidentiality

The ODR, personal advisors, and others at the University involved in or aware of the complaint will take reasonable steps to protect the privacy of all involved. Once a complaint is filed, the Complainant or Reporter, the Respondent, and any witnesses will be notified of the potential for compromising the integrity of the investigation by disclosing information about the case and the expectation that they therefore keep such information – including any documents they may receive or review – confidential. They also will be notified that sharing such information might compromise the investigation or may be construed as retaliatory. Retaliation of any kind is a separate violation of the Policy and may lead to an additional complaint and consequences.

G. Coordination with Law Enforcement Authorities

In all cases, the Investigator will have completed the initial review without delay and, as appropriate, will have proposed interim measures to the HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty. In the event that an allegation includes behavior or actions that are under review by law-enforcement authorities, the Investigator will, in light of status updates from law-enforcement authorities and the Title IX Officer, assess and reassess the timing of the investigation under the Policy, so that it does not compromise the criminal investigation.
H. Conclusion of the Investigation and Issuance of Final Report

At the conclusion of the investigation, the Investigator will make findings of fact, applying a preponderance of the evidence standard, and determine based on those findings of fact whether there was a violation of the Policy.

The Investigator will provide the Complainant and the Respondent with a written draft of the findings of fact and analysis and will give both parties one week to submit a written response to the draft. The Investigator will consider any written responses before finalizing these sections of the report and the final section of the report, which will outline any recommended measures to be taken by the School to eliminate any harassment, prevent its recurrence, and address its effects. The Title IX Officer and the School will work jointly to put in place such measures as they determine are appropriate. Consistent with School policies, measures imposed at this stage might include, among others: restrictions on contact; course-schedule or work-schedule alteration; changes in housing; leaves of absence; or increased monitoring of certain areas of the campus.

The investigation will be completed and the final report provided to the Complainant, the Respondent, the HKS Title IX Coordinator, and the HKS Dean ordinarily within six weeks of receipt of the complaint.

I. Appeal

Both the Respondent and the Complainant may appeal the decision of the Investigator to the University Title IX Officer, who shall refer the appeal to a university panel of faculty and administrators trained to hear appeals of ODR investigation decisions, based on the following grounds:

1. A procedural error occurred, which may change the outcome of the decision; or

2. The appellant has substantive and relevant new information that was not available at the time of investigation and that may change the outcome of the decision.

Disagreement with the Investigator’s findings or determination is not, by itself, a ground for appeal.

Appeals of the Investigator’s decision must be received by the University Title IX Officer who shall refer the appeal to a university panel of faculty and administrators trained to hear appeals of ODR investigation decisions, within one week of the date of the final report. Likewise, appeals of decisions to administratively close a case or to deny a request to withdraw the complaint must be received by the University Title IX Officer within one week of the date of decision under appeal. Ordinarily, appeals will be decided within two weeks and the parties and the appropriate School or unit Title IX Coordinators will be promptly informed of the outcome in writing.
J. Discipline and Sanctions

The administration of discipline in cases against HKS Faculty is subject to the authority of the Dean of HKS. Having received the report from ODR in a case where a violation of the Policy has been determined, (such violations may include acts of sexual and/or gender-based harassment, submitting a complaint that is not in good faith, providing false or misleading information, or retaliation against an individual for raising an allegation, for cooperating in an investigation of such a complaint, or for opposing discriminatory practices), the Dean will appoint a three-person faculty panel to advise on sanctions. The Dean will make the final decision on sanctions. In the event that the sanction invokes the Third Statute of the University, appropriate University processes to enact the sanction will be followed as appropriate. Sanctions may range from reprimand to dismissal.

K. What Happens Following the Disposition of a Case

The HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty will ensure that any action or sanction determined by the Dean or Dean’s designee is carried out. If the Policy was found to be violated, a written record of the formal complaint process and its outcome will be retained by the Dean of the Faculty.

L. Special Circumstances

i. Request for Anonymity

If a potential Complainant asks to remain anonymous, then the Investigator, the HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty, or the Title IX Officer, as appropriate, will consider how to proceed, taking into account the potential Complainant’s wishes, the University’s commitment to provide a non-discriminatory environment, and the potential Respondent’s right to have specific notice of the allegations. The Investigator, the HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty, or the Title IX Officer may conduct limited fact finding to better understand the context of the complaint. In some circumstances, a request for anonymity may mean an investigation cannot go forward, or the Investigator, the HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty, or the Title IX Officer may determine that further investigation is necessary, in which case the potential Complainant will be informed that his or her identity will be disclosed as necessary for the investigatory process. In other circumstances, the Investigator, the HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty, or the Title IX Officer may determine that the matter can be appropriately resolved without further investigation and without revealing the Complainant’s identity.
ii. Administrative Closure

If, after conducting the initial review of a formal complaint, the Investigator finds that the allegation, if true, would not constitute a violation of the Policy, then the University Title IX Officer will administratively close the case and notify the Complainant (and the Reporter, if there is one), as well as the HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty.

Where the Complainant is unwilling to participate in further investigation, the Title IX Officer will assess the severity of the alleged harassment or the potential risk of a hostile environment for others in the community and will determine whether administrative closure is appropriate or whether the University should proceed with an investigation.

Within one week of the decision to close a case administratively, the Complainant or Reporter may request reconsideration on the grounds that there is substantive and relevant new information that was not available at the time of the decision and that may change the outcome of the decision. The Title IX Officer will consider requests for reconsideration and inform the Complainant or Reporter of the outcome, ordinarily within one week of the date of the request.

In cases where the Title IX Officer concludes that the alleged conduct, while not a violation of the Policy, might implicate other School or University conduct policies, the Title IX Officer may refer the complaint to the appropriate School or University official.

iii. Request to Withdraw the Complaint

While every effort will be made to respect the Complainant’s wishes to withdraw a formal complaint, the University must be mindful of its overarching commitment to provide a non-discriminatory environment. Thus, in certain circumstances, the Title IX Officer may determine that investigation is appropriate despite a Complainant’s request to withdraw the complaint or failure to cooperate. Other circumstances also may result in a request to withdraw the complaint being declined, where, for example, a request to withdraw is made after a significant portion of the investigation has been completed and terminating the investigation would be inequitable.

iv. Request for Informal Resolution After a Complaint has Been Filed

Once a complaint has been opened for investigation and before the final report has been provided to the parties, a party may request informal resolution as an alternative to formal resolution of the complaint, but that disposition requires agreement of the Complainant and the Respondent and the approval of the Title IX Officer in consultation with HKS.

If such a request is approved, the timeframes will be stayed, and the Investigator or a designee will take such steps as he or she deems appropriate to assist in reaching a resolution. If the parties cannot reach an informal resolution within two weeks from receipt of the request, then the Investigator will resume the investigation of the complaint in accordance with the formal complaint procedures.
IV. Resources

University Resources:
Office of Sexual Assault Prevention &
Response  HUHS Behavioral Health Services
Bureau of Study Counsel
Harvard University Health Services  Harvard Chaplains
Harvard University Police Department  Employee Assistance Program

HKS Title IX Coordinator for Faculty:
Suzanne Cooper

University Title IX Officer:
Mia Karvonides

Outside Agencies: